OBJECTION 1.

I'M TOO POOR; I CAN'T AFFORD IT.

ANSWER.

If you are too poor to save less than half a dollar per week, at from 30 to 35 years of age, or proportionately at other ages, and find it so difficult to do so—should you be taken away by death, how bitterly poverty will strike home to your widow and children, or those dependent on you! Is it not worth a struggle to avoid this, and give them at least $1,000 by paying so small a sum? It costs just $2,00 per month to insure $1,000 at the age of 32 years.

OBJECTION 2.

I've talked to several of my friends, and they all advise me to have nothing to do with it.

ANSWER.

Will your friends undertake to provide for those you leave behind, in case you do not live long enough to save money? Ask them, and be guided by their answer.

OBJECTION 3.

I can't make up my mind; call again.

ANSWER.

Your other objections have been answered. I appeal to your own common sense to answer this for yourself, aided by

THREE PRACTICAL REFLECTIONS.

FIRST.—Nothing is so uncertain as Life.
SECOND.—No provision is perfect that is contingent upon the duration of your Life, which is not immediate.
THIRD.—The only immediate provision is that provided by Life Insurance.

The Fall Session of this Institution closed 23rd. day of December. The Spring Session opened the 1st. Wednesday in January, and will continue 20 weeks.

The success of this school has been without a parallel. A new building has just been completed, by which a large additional number can be accommodated. We are determined to make our pupils as comfortable as they can be made anywhere, and to afford them all the advantage for a thorough and extensive education, that can be found at any First class Female College, North or South.

The location is a most delightful one. The Mineral Water is too well known to the whole country to need a remark. Even invalid young ladies may secure a thorough education, and at the same time the restoration of their health. Reference is made to every intelligent Physician in the State, as well as to the hundreds who have found relief here.

The young ladies all worship in the College Chapel, and hence no extra clothing is required. In the single item of dress parents can save 25 per cent. of the entire expense incurred by sending to Boarding Schools located in cities or villages. This Institution is certainly one of the cheapest and most easy of access in the Southern States. Besides, it offers the most superior advantages in every respect.

A PROPOSITION.

IN WHICH YOU ARE INTERESTED.

I PROPOSE for the protection of the citizens of Raleigh and surrounding country, against the imposition of those so-called Cost Stores, to furnish each and every person, the New York Cost of any goods they may want to buy; by this means they can tell whether they are buying goods at Cost or paying a profit on them.

Call before going to any of those Cost Stores so-called, and let me give you a memorandum of Cost prices.

Most of my large stock I will sell at cost but I have goods that I will not sell in that way, and neither will those merchants who make such a flourish about selling at Cost.

No merchant in this place has purchased his Goods any cheaper than I bought mine. Any assertion to the contrary is false; and I will guarantee to sell Goods as low as any Cost House. All I ask is an opportunity to prove the truthfulness of this assertion.

SCHOOLS IN NORTH AND SOUTH CAROLINA,

FOR THE

Orphans of Confedernte Soldiers.

REFERENCES:

"COLUMBIA, Oct. 19, 1866.

MISS M. A. BUIE, SO FAVORABLY KNOWN during the war as the "Soldier's Friend," is engaged in the attempt to found a School for the orphan children of southern Soldiers. She proposes that contributions for this purpose should be placed in the hands of some gentlemen of this State, to be appointed by the Governor, and that the School shall be located in some desirable portion of the South. I commend this laudable undertaking to all charitable persons, and I wish that the amplest success may reward the patriotic efforts of Miss Buie.

WADE HAMPTON."

"I concur with Gen. Hampton in commending the benevolent enterprise of Miss Buie to the favor and patronage of the generous, liberal and philanthropic. Her life thus far has been devoted to acts of kindness and charity, and she merits success in her undertaking.

J. L. ORR, Governor."

"STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, COLUMBIA, October 26, 1866.

MISS BUIE:—I approve of your suggestion to appoint Mr. D. L. McKay, of Charleston, as Treasurer, to receive the funds and hold them for the Female School you are interesting yourself to establish for the education of orphan girls. He is a gentleman of high character, great moral worth, and enjoys the confidence of the public.

Very respectfully, your obedient servant,

J. L. ORR."

Mr. McKay accepts the office. All funds sent to South Carolina must be sent to him.

Yours truly,

D. L. McKAY,
President People's National Bank."

Miss Buie begs the co-operation of all persons to aid her in this enterprise to educate and make good and useful thousands. All donations must be paid to the Treasurers appointed by the two Governors.—Gov. Worth says:

"You may rely on my co-operation. You ask me to appoint some suitable persons as Treasurers. I suggest Geo. W. Mordecai, of Raleigh; Wm. A. Wright of Wilmington; Philip A. Wiley, of Fayetteville; John D. Whitford, Newberne; Jesse H Lindsay, Greensboro'; D. A. Davis, Salisbury; L. O. Lash, Salem; R. F. Swinston, Statesville; L. W. Dewry, Charlotte; Gen. The Great Southern Tonic,

AND THE MOST PALATABLE STOMACHIC EVER USED,

FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA, DISORDERED Digestion, Flatulency, Sluggish Circulation of the Blood, Bilious Complaints arising from a morbid condition of the Stomach and Bowels. An Elegant Tonic in debilitated states of the Digestive Organs, or of the system generally. For the loss of appetite it is the most wholesome and effectual Tonic in the world. It strengthens nature and enables the system to triumph over disease. In wakefulness attended with tremors and general nervous derangement, it is peculiarly adapted, giving strength and tone to the nerves. To delicate Ladies and Children it is invaluable—and in fact wherever a pleasant and agreeable Tonic is wanted, this should be used.

Dr. Johnston H. Jones, one of the most scientific and well known Physicians in the Southern states, testifies to its great value, besides many others who have been greatly benefited by the use of these Bitters.

Wednesday Evening, Feb. 27, 1867.

The Homestead Bill.

We publish to-day, the act recently passed by the Legislature, establishing a freehold homestead for the citizens of the State. This bill is considered by some the best measure of relief for the people that has been passed for years.—By this, can only be meant, that it will operate in two ways to produce a beneficial effect. First, that it will encourage our people to be industrious and frugal for the sake of providing a homestead for old age and for their families.—Secondly, by preventing people from going in debt beyond their means of paying. Certainly it must operate as the stay laws are operating, to break up the credit system.

There are many advocates of the credit system who insist that great good has been accomplished by it; there are advocates of slavery, because of the good it has done. But when the enormous evils which both have entailed upon the country, are put in the opposite scale, few cool, sober minded men, we judge, will conclude that the evils both have produced, far outweigh all the good. Both have tended to develope the country and contribute to its progress, but these can never compensate for the moral, social and political evils they have been the direct instruments of producing. "Owe no man," is a scriptural injunction, which all would do well to observe, and we judge every Southern man is ready, with Job, to curse the day that slavery was born, or that a black-skin put his foot on American soil.

The Programme.

The speech of Gov. Pierpoint to the Virginia Legislature clearly unfolds the programme by which the new reconstruction bill, is to be inaugurated. He urges the Virginia Legislature to call the Convention now, authorized or provided for by the bill and plainly indicates, if they refuse, it will be done for them. He further says there are two ways by which the Convention may be called. First, by the Legislature which is the most ordinary and Constitutional method, or secondly, by the demand and call of the primary meetings of the people. Of course this is not an age when laws or constitutions stand in the way of what the people determine to do. The people will do what they will and there is no use in talking about constitutions. This is evidently the doctrine, that rules the present hour.

It is plain that any movement to call a Convention by the Legislature, before the Sherman bill becomes a law, however certain we may be that that will be the case, would be both premature and ridiculous, yet it is evident from the movement of Mr. Richardson, of Moore, in the Senate to day, that there is a plan on foot to commit the Legislature against the Sherman bill in advance, in order that the scheme of holding primary meetings in this State to call a Convention, may be justified and accelerated by such refusal to endorse.

Our readers may calculate with some certainty that the so-called loyalists will in a short time call these primary meetings in this State, and that they will assume the unconstitutional prerogative of calling the Convention &c., will be sustained in this movement by the military. Under such circumstances it would be well for the Legislature and the people to consider well this movement.

Dr. Jordan, late of the 23d. N. C. Reg't.

We are requested by Prof. W. F. Roe, Elmira, N. Y., to announce to the friends of the late Dr. Jordan, of the 23d. N. C. Reg't who was killed at the battle of South Mountain, that by addressing letters to Prof. Roe, as above, "they can learn something of his fate and receive testimonials of personal interest." Our exchanges are requested to notice.

PRESIDENT'S VETO.—It was general expected that President Johnson would send in his veto to-day. Our telegrams furnish no evidence of it.

GOLD.—It will be seen that gold is rising in New York. The tide of events are hurrying the nation on to bankruptcy or what may be worse. No mortal can penetrate the future.

RECONSTRUCTION UNDER THE NEW LAW.—The New York Post learns that as soon as the military reconstruction bill becomes a law, citizens of North Carolina and Arkansas will begin the work of reorganization under it. They are now making preparation for this important work, so as to secure proper concert of action in the different parts of the States; and though they expect to meet at first with some opposition from the factiously disposed, they depend upon the United States to protect them in exercising full and free discussion before the people, and in holding the elections prescribed by the act. The Post also learns from South Carolina that Mr. Orr has received such treatment from the extremists for his recent moderate counsels, that his friends are outraged and offended, and talk of cutting loose from men who, they begin to see, are too thick headed to accept anything but ruin. There are signs in different Southern States which show that, with the President's consent, the plan passed by Congress would be at once adopted all over the South; but even if Mr. Johnson vetoes the bill, the citizens of North Carolina and Arkansas will, by their perfected movement, hold him to the responsibility of provisions of the act, which he cannot refuse.—Baltimore American.

A PROTEST AGAINST EMIGRATION TO BRAZIL.—Thomas K. Beecher sends a hearty remonstrance from Rio de Janerio against any further emigration of mechanics and laborers from the United States to Brazil. He says those that are already there are in a condition of great distress, as it is impossible for them to complete with the slaves and cheaper working men in doing the ordinary labor of the country. A well-managed colony, he thinks, might succeed, but for solitary poor men it is a poor place.

The Kentucky Democratic State Convention nominated John L. Helm for Governor of the late.

From the New York World.

What Will the South Do?

From all we know of the temper and views of the Southern people, there is little risk of error in predicting that they will take no steps towards reorganizing their State governments under the reconstruction bill. It is needless to recapitulate the grounds of this opinion, for they are sufficiently well known. It is for those whose local position and habitual intercourse with the Southern mind give them better opportunities of judging, to decide whether the present attitude of the South is so fixed that no lapse of time or conjuncture of events can shake or change it. If so, the policy of the South is simple and clear, and their advantages for parrying the intended coercion not inconsiderable. But unless this immovable and indivisible fixity of purpose can be counted upon with a degree of assurance amounting to certainty, the sooner a new line of action is chalked out the better for all. In other words, if the South has any reason to distrust its own firmness, it had better yield in 1867 than at some future time.

This point is of such fundamental concern that we trust we shall be pardoned for bringing it clearly into the foreground. The interests involved one of such momentous magnitude, that it would be a fatal blunder for the Southern people to mistake transient wilfulness for immovable determination. If the South is ever to accept of negro suffrage; if it is ever to reorganize its State governments under federal dictation; if it is ever to ratify the pending constitutional amendment as a condition of restoration, there are manifest advantages in not postponing till another year what they may be brought to do at last. We are far enough from advising that the South should voluntarily submit to flagrant injustice and humiliating subjugation. On the question whether they will give in or stand out, we will at present say nothing. But as between submission now and submission at some future time (supposing future submission to be possible,) our views are so clear, and rest upon grounds that seem to us so solid, that we should fail in our duty if we withheld them.

Whatever may be the ultimate basis on which this great controversy is settled, there must be advantages in the early adoption of that basis. The crippled business interests of the South ought to be lifted out of the stagnation caused by the existing uncertainty. To postpone reconstruction under Sherman's bill for the sake of restoration under the simple, unamended Constitution, would be wise and reasonable delay. But to postpone reconstruction on the new plan to adopt the same or some similar plan three or five years hence, would be short-sighted, passionate folly. Every year of military government puts back the recuperation of the South, and (what is worse) accustoms the federal government and the Northern people to the dangerous practice of domination. The losses and dangers thus entailed may be reasonably accepted in the persistent pursuit of compensating ends; but not gratuitously—not as a halting place at which the South only looses time, property, and quiet, to enter at last on the same repudiated path. As between the Sherman bill pure and simple, and the Sherman bill plus several years of additional distraction, a reasonable people should not hesitate.

If the Southern States are ever to reorganize under the Sherman bill, they should do so this year and thereby gain the advantage of participating in the Presidential election. If they form new State constitutions during the summer and autumn, and present them to Congress for acceptance at next winter's session, their sixty or seventy votes may determine the result. But postponement till next year would shut them out completely, and might be the means of subjecting them to four years more of Radical tyranny. If they should reorganize next year, their constitutions could not be submitted to Congress for approval until after the Presidential election is past. The South has a far deeper stake than any of us at the North in rescuing the government from Radical control, and their electoral vote's would in all probability turn the scale. We do not advise the Southern people to seize this advantage if they feel sure of an ultimate triumph by other means; but, unless they are unchangeably confident and united, they had better not let go a bird in the hand to try what luck they will have in beating the bush.

As to negro suffrage, which we suppose to be the most odious feature of the new scheme, the same mode of reasoning is applicable. If negro suffrage can be permanently prevented there is sense in fighting it; but if the South is to concede it at last, it would be better to accept it at once. Whatever may be the ultimate decision, it seems tolerably certain that during the provisional period, while the South is held under martial law, there will be negro suffrage anyway.—In every State except South Carolina, the whites outnumber the blacks, and if they are united they can elect all the officers. It is the purpose of the Radicals to create a schism in the white vote, and by reinforcing their own part of it with the negroes, to control the elections. If the Southern people promptly accept the situation, they can fustrate this design. If there must be negro suffrage (as there will be at least during the period of military rule,) it is preferable to make the best of what cannot be helped. It is better to welcome the negro vote and control it than by ineffectual resistance to sour and exasperate the negro mind, and thus surrender it as a political tool into the hands of the Radicals. The interest of the negroes is the interest of their section, and they can easily be made to perceive it. A tax of three cents a pound on cotton is as bad for the black cotton-grower as for the white. A protective tariff, raising the price of goods for the benefit of Yankee manufacturers, tends to clothe negroes in rags as well as to improverish their white neighbors. The skill of the Southern politicians will enable them to control the negro vote as easily as they have always controlled the white vote, provided they begin in season, before the Radicals manipulate the negro mind into subserviency, and inoculate it with hatred of the majority.—This consideration loses its force if negro suffrage is to be but temporary; but if it is to be finally acquiesced in by the Southern people, the sooner the better.

We do not doubt that, in the end, the Southern people could battle the Radicals by simple, steady persistence. But for this policy to prevail, they must be substantially unanimous.—Mere perseverance without unity will profit nothing. If the Southern people split on this question, the dissenting minority will unite with the negroes and, with them, soon become a majority, reorganize the State, and get admitted to Congress. Whether this can be permanently prevented we are no judges, and our Southern fellow-citizens are. If all depends upon whether the whole Southern people are sound to the core and inflexibly resolute. If enough of them finally yield to make with the negroes a majority, all the intermediate opposition will be a loss of time temper quiet, and material prosperity, without any compensating advantage. They ought either to stand firm and stand together, or else take time by the forelock and make the best of what cannot be helped. If they are going to blutter now and yield by-and-by, they will draw upon themselves the evils of both lines of policy, and secure the advantages of neither.

For the Sentinel.

Editors of the Sentinel—In giving the yeas and nays, on the passage of the bill, known as the stay law, I find your reporter made a mistake. He reported me as voting in the affirmative, whereas I voted in the negative.

Very respectfully,

BISHOP OF GEORGIA.—Dr. W. G. Jones, of Albany, Georgia, in a communication to the Macon Telegraph, nominates the Rev. John Beckwith, Rector of Trinity Church, New Orleans, as successor of the late Bishop Elliott in the Bishopric of Georgia. Mr. Beckwith is a native of Raleigh, North Carolina, is a near relative of the late Geo. E. Badger, and son-in-law of Judge Brockenbrough of Virginia. He is represented as distinguished alike for his piety and the vigor, eloquence and success of his public administration.—Exchange.

CONFISCATION.—A Washington letter in the Baltimore Gazette says that a bill has been prepared providing for extensive confiscations of Southern landed estates. The idea that the "military bill" is the crowning enormity, that it contains the ultimatum of the Radicals, that it is intended as a finality, is openly derided by all prominent members of the dominant party, adds the same letter. They say they have applied the "entering wedge"—their ultimate design is to seize upon every inch of Southern soil. I understand that the confiscation bill I have alluded to was seen by Mr. Johnson, your senator, and that this knowledge of the existence of such a project is alleged by him in palliation of his vote upon the military bill.

"A Grammar of the Latin Language, for the use of Schools, with Exercises and Vocabularies—By William Bingham, A. M., Superintendent of the Bingham School. Philadelphia and Raleigh, 1867.

Here is a book furnished by a native of the State, the son of a famous teacher, and himself a most successful and distinguished one. Of this book, the youth of our country can avail themselves, for acquiring a mastery of the Latin language, and a thorough and discriminating acquaintance with Latin literature. The work bears evident marks of great care and skill, and ripe and accurate scholarship in the author. We do not wonder at this, for he has been nearly all his life trained to the business of teaching.

It is not a mere revised edition of a bad book long used, which sort of thing ordinarily perpetuates about as many errors as it corrects, but a new and entirely independent production, and presents the fruits of severe discipline and long experience on the subject, aided and enriched by the best thoughts of the acutest minds which devoted themselves to this department of investigation. The author tells us in the preface—which, by the way, if published in all the newspapers, would be better than any such notice as this, "free use has been made of the works of the best German, English and American authors." He does not disgust the intelligent public, then, by foolishly claiming to be perfectly original. Only little contracted minds aspire to such an impossibility.

On some minor points of arrangement, &c., we should hesitate to express an opinion, without the test of fuller experiment than we have been enabled to make; but in the general clearness and propriety of its method, as well as in the minute and accurate filling up, the work before us deserves high commendation. The beauty of this grammar is the simplicity of its arrangement in respect to the gentle gradation, by which the pupil is led on from what is easy to what is more difficult. "One thing at a time," is a main principle of the book. If any one wishes to know what is meant by this, let him get the book and examine it carefully to the Taird Decension, only. By following out this simple order, the pupil finds to his gratification that what he has already learned, helps him on greatly in what he is now learning. Every principle is not only clearly explained, but carried into practice at once. The old fashioned method of committing a large volume to memory—of loading the mind with what to the boy—is all unintelligible jargon, is abandoned, and one principle at a time is stated—explained, and thoroughly taught.

But whilst it exceeds all other Grammars in this particular, and by its plainness is suited to the necessities of most beginners, still by its fullness and detail, it will satisfy the inquiries of the more advanced scholar, and will be a suitable companion at all stages of his progress.—We are particularly pleased with one feature of the work; that the author seems not to have bestowed all his attention on any single department of his labor. The successive portions are equally elaborated—no one is neglected.—Every principle appears to have been examined by itself in all its important relations, and the result is such as might be expected. The whole subject of the derivation and composition of nouns, with the interpretation of the various forms of combination and termination, is a most valuable addition. The same remark will apply with equal force to adjectives, pronouns, verbs, adverbs, &c. The arrangement of the syntax, as well as the material is in many respects novel; and will be found we think, on trial decidedly preferable to the old one: For we have very often known pupils constrained by the tendency of their own minds to simplicity and principles, to form for themselves from the mass of rules presented to them, a scheme of arrangement analogous to the one adopted in this Grammar. This scheme strikes us therefore as natural and convenient for ready recollection, and easy and intelligent application.

We have said enough to show that we entertain a very favorable opinion of this work, though we would be glad to say more, but for the fear of making this paper so long that no one will read it. We cordially commend it to the teachers and to the youth of our land.

The mechanical execution of the book is excellent. D. L.

BALTIMORE CONFERENCE.—This body will commence its annual session in Baltimore on Wednesday the 6th of March, at 9 A.M. Bishop Pierce, Rev. Dr. Lovick Pierce, Dr. Means of Georgia, Bishop Doggett and other distinguished divines will be in attendance. The Baltimore Episcopal Methodist says "the number of members expected to be in attendance will, it is supposed, reach about one hundred and forty." If so, both of the changes proposed by the General Conference may be made, and one of them (the change of name) almost certainly will be made.—Exchange.

The President stated on Thursday that his nominations in future would be such as he could expect the Senate to confirm.

For the Sentinel.

Remarks of Mr. McRae, of Robeson.

The "bill to amend the charter of the Fayetteville and Florence Rail Road Company" being under consideration, Mr. McRae, Senator from Richmond and Robeson, said, that he did not wish to consume the time of the Senate by making a speech on the bill, which had been made the special order for this hour, but a sense of duty to his constituents constrained him to observe, that the arguments on the other side all pointed to the conclusion, that commerce was obliged to run down stream as inevitably as that water flowed in that direction; whereas, experience demonstrates that it is generally directed and controlled by interest, and the habits of communities engaged in trade. Mr. McRae professed to be perfectly familiar with the section of country through which this road was to pass, and asserted that it was finely timbered, well watered, that the soil was excellent and that, in a word, it was susceptible of sustaining a dense and thrifty population, if the benefits of the Internal Improvement system of North Carolina could be extended to them. He alluded to the changed and vastly improved condition of the people along the line of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford Rail Road, in some of the poorest sections of the counties through which that road runs, as a triumphant vindication of his views, as to the propriety of bringing every community which it may be possible to reach within the magic circle of Rail Road communication. For what county or what section of the State, Mr. McRae added, would for any consideration surrender the inestimable advantages they now enjoy by their proximity to Rail Roads, and lapse again into the obscurity and poverty of former times?

In conclusion, he appealed to the Senate to continue to aid and foster all the Rail Road enterprises of the good old North State, as the best hope for the future, and avoiding all sectional jealousies and a contracted policy, that discourages every improvement that does not point in certain directions, and to generally and justly stimulate every community in North Carolina to its utmost exertions in developing the resources of our own down trodden but not yet lifeless commonwealth.

The Homestead Act.

AN ACT TO BE ENTITLED "AN ACT TO ESTABLISH FREEHOLD HOMESTEADS FOR THE CITIZENS OF THE STATE."

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina, and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same, That it shall be lawful for any citizen of the State, who is possessed of a freehold of lands within the same, to file his petition in the Court of Pleas and Quarter Sessions of the County—where the land lies, praying for the allotment of a homestead therefrom not exceeding one hundred acres if in the county, or one acre if in the City or town, which allotment may include a single dwelling and the necessary outhouses, and therefore it shall be the duty of the Court, to appoint five freeholders to lay off and allot to the petitioner said homestead, by metes and bounds according to their discretion, make a descriptive account of the same under their hands and seals, and return it to the Court at its next session.

Provided, That if any building, other than the necessary outhouses or houses belonging to the cartilege shall be erected on any part of said homestead in a town or city, then so much of the land as is covered by said buildings, shall not be exempt longer from execution under the provisions of this act.

SEC. 2. That upon the return, as aforesaid, it shall be the duty of the Clerk to record it upon the minutes, and to make out and deliver to the Register of the county, a copy thereof, who shall register the same in his books, making a memorandum of the time when it is done at the foot of the registration, for which services, these officers shall be entitled to the fees fixed by law in similar cases.

SEC. 3. That the homestead, so laid off and registered, shall not be subject to execution for any debt contracted, or cause of action, or other liability, save taxes accruing, after the same is registered. Provided, Said homestead shall not be exempt from execution, for any debt or cause of action arising upon any penal bond or covenant previously executed, although the same may accrue after the registration aforesaid.

SEC. 4. That if any person be taken under a capias ad satisfaciendum, sued out upon any judgment founded, or cause of action accrued subsequent to the registration aforesaid, it shall not be required of him to put the allotted homestead in his schedule of effects, or to surrender the same, Provided, This exemption shall not apply as aforesaid to process on judgment, founded on penal bonds or covenants previously executed, although the causes of action did not accrue till after the registration.

SEC. 5. That no male person in lawful wedlock have power to sell or dispose of a homestead so set apart without the concurrence of his wife, evidenced by deed, executed and verified with the same formalities that may be required by law to convey the lands of femes covert.

SEC. 6. That in all cases where a homestead freehold is laid off under the provisions of this act, from an estate descendable to heirs, and the wife survives, she shall be entitled to the said homestead for dower, if she shall so elect, to be allotted to her in the manner now provided by law; subject nevertheless to the condition that if she marry again, there being a child or children of the issue of her first husband, she shall take one third of the same only, including the dwelling. Provided, That the homestead provided for in the foregoing sections shall not be exempt from debts incurred for making improvements thereon or cultivating the same.—Provided, further, That such exemption shall continue after the death of such householder or householders, for the benefit of the children, as a home, until the youngest child shall become twenty-one years of age.

SEC. 7. Be it further enacted, That the following property of each head of a family, or housekeeper, shall be exempt from execution, except for taxes after the ratification of this act, to wit: all necessary farming and mechanical tools, one work horse, one yoke of oxen, one cart or wagon, one milk cow and calf, fifteen head of hogs, five hundred pounds of pork or bacon, fifty bushels of corn, twenty bushels of wheat or rice, and houshold and kitchen furniture not to exceed in value two hundred dollars. Provided, That the libraries of licensed attorneys at law, practicing physicians and ministers of the Gospel, also the instruments of surgeons and dentists used in their professions.

SEC. 8. That all laws and clauses of laws coming with in the meaning and in view of this act are hereby rep aled.

Congress.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.

In the House Wentworth's corruption committee reported that the testimony which they had received did not affect the integrity of the President, nor call in question the integrity of any member of the House. The report was received amid shouts of laughter. It was tabled and the committee discharged, and it is universally regarded as a farce.

Mr Benjamin moved that a salute of a hundred guns be fired in honor of the Georgetown victory, which the Speaker ruled out of order.

The fortification appropriation bill passed.

The joint resolution removing the Naval Academy from Annapolis was defeated.

In the Senate John D. Defrees of Indiana was elected Congressional printer.

The Educational Bureau bill providing for a Commissioner with a salary of $4000, and three clerks at $2,800 per annum was favorably considered. In this connection Mr. Sumner said he was anxious that this generation should be as much dignified as possible.

The army appropriation bill passed with a provision disbanding and disarming the militia in the unrepresented States, and a re-organization forbidden until congressionally authorized. It goes to the House for concurrence.

WE OFFER TO THE PUBLIC THIS CELEBRATED Oil, and in doing so we unhesitatingly pronounce it SUPERIOR TO ANY BURNING OIL IN USE. It is Non-Explosive. Free from Grease. It will not grease the hands. It will not soil or grease the clothing. It is more brilliant than Gas. It produces a soft and beautiful light. It is not so trying to the eyes. It can be used in any Kerosene Lamp by adopting our LIGHT HOUSE OR RACTCHET BURNERS.

It has been most favorably received, and pronounced by judges to be the

THE BEST AND MOST RELIABLE OIL

now in the market; and in consequence of the many serious accidents arising from the EXPLOSION OF KEROSENE, this Oil is extensively known and used in preference.

We are now prepared to furnish the trade with this valuable Oil, and we solicit from the public an examination and trial.

We have on hand a large stock of

and can supply the trade on liberal terms.

First Premium Awarded at the Louisiana State Fair held in New Orleans, from Nov. 20th, to 27th, 1866, against all Competitors.

PERUVIAN GUANO SUBSTITUTE!

BAUGH'S

RAW BONE SUPER-PHOSPHATE OF LIME.

Manufactured under the formula originated in 1854 and patented by

BAUGH & SONS,

SOLE PROPRIETORS, AT THE

Delaware River Chemical Works,

PHILADELPHIA, U. S. A.

This old established MANURE is manufactured from Bones that have not been burned or steamed, and it contains all their original organic matter. It is active in its operation, and is a fertiliser of great durability. It does not exhaust the soil like Peruvian Guano, but on the contrary permanently improves it.

Previous to 1861 it was introduced into the Southern States to considerable extent, and again in 1865, where it has been used with remarkable success upon Cotton, Corn, Tobacco, and all Crops.

A trial will convince any planter of its merits.—Pamphlets containing well-known Southern evidence furnished upon application to New York or Philadelphia offices.

☞ Sold by Dealers in all the principal cities and towns throughout the United States and British Provinces.

FERTILIZERS FOR SPRING CROPS.

WE beg to inform the trade and planters of North Carolina and Virginia, that we are prepared to furnish them with the most approved FERTILIZERS, on the most accommodating terms. We will have a stock of genuine PERUVIAN GUANO, purchased direct from the Agent of the Peruvian Government.

We have now in store, for immediate delivery, 225 tons BRADLEY'S SUPER PHOSPHATE OF LIME, which won for itself such an enviable reputation in the Cotton and Tobacco counties of North Carolina and Virginia, last season, proving itself equal, and in many important respects, superior to the Peruvian Guano. We give an analysis of it as ascertained by Dr. Hayes, one of the most eminent Chemists in the country:

Results of Analyses Made of Bradley's Patent Super-Phosphate of Lime, as now sold by Wm. L. Bradley.

100 Parts Consist of
Moisture	5.30
Prepared animal matter, salts of Ammonia, fatty substances and Humus	38.50
Bone Phosphates of Lime, Magnesia and Iron	35.80
(Soluble Phosphates of do. 16 6-10.)
Sulphate of Lime	16.50
Salts	20
Insoluble	2.60
	99.30

The animal matter afforded 4 2-10 parts of Ammonia when it was decomposed, and, as will be seen, nearly one-half of the Bone Phosphate is soluble.

After many analyses of your Super-Phosphate of Lime, made during the last few months, I have found your standard of quality full equal to that of any you have ever sold in former years; and I am satisfied that you include the correct principles in the manufacture. Respectfully,

A. A. HAYES, M. D., State Assayer.

We refer to the following gentlemen who tested its merits last season:

The Water Power at present improved is sufficient for a large Factory, and the most valuable power is yet unimproved. This property is only two and a half miles from the North Carolina Central Rail Road Shops, and midway between Charlotte and Goldsboro'. LIFE INSURANCE.

MANY insure their lives because they see the folly of neglecting to do so. Many who do not insure argue that it is folly to insure. Which is right? If those who do not insure can cite instances of the harm done by a policy of life Insurance, if they can point out men who have lost $5,000 to $100,000 by Life Insurance, then upon proof of same, we must believe them. Hundreds of instances can readily be shown where parties have been benefitted to this extent.—In North Carolina there are some Widows and Children ready to testify to the good resulting from a life Insurance on their only certain dependence.

The "Ætna Life Co., in loosing $23,000 the past year has relieved want—and now with over $4,000,000 of assets—offers sure protection to all those who will avail themselves of her liberal terms, by calling on 1867. "THE WORLD" 1867.

THE ATTENTION OF THE PUBLIC IS INVITED to the claims of "THE WORLD" as one of the leading public journals of the country. It is the chief organ of the Democratic Party of the United States, and the foremost advocate of the immediate restoration of the Union. Its highest merit consists in its character as An enterprising and Trustworthy Newspaper.

The next year bids fair to be a more critical one in the history of our free institutions, than even any of the eventful ones that have preceded it. The first requisite for an intelligent judgment of public affairs is a full and authentic account of facts as they transpire. These THE WORLD always aims to give with conscientious accuracy, and with equal fullness and fidelity, whether they make for or against its own views of public policy. Prompt activity in spreading before its readers every kind of news in which any part of the public takes an interest, is the first duty of a newspaper, and the facilities of THE WORLD for discharging this obligation are unsurpassed by those of any journal in the United States. Whatever else may fail in, it certainly will not fail to furnish the news, nor to supply it with such promptitude, spice, freshness, abundance, variety, accuracy, and candor, that no class of readers can miss anything of interest which they wish to find. THE WORLD will publish documents and arguments prepared by political foes just as freely as those prepared by political friends; making its own comments on them, of course, but never suppressing or garbling them because they are calculated to damage its own party. Adverse arguments which it cannot refute, it is content to leave to make their full impression. THE WORLD adopts this rule because it believes no other is honest; because it conceives that its first duty to its readers is to keep them thoroughly informed on every passing subject of importance.
